Dear Friends,

Thank you for joining the Friends of the Library! Your membership, donations and volunteer time are so valuable to our library. You help us support our children’s summer program as well as various needs of the library. The Friends of the Library are committed to helping the library serve our great community.

As a member of the Friends of the Library, you will be able to attend our “pre-sale” book sale event, be added to the quarterly newsletter list and have the opportunity to help us in our future planned events! All members will receive notification of upcoming events and volunteer opportunities through your preferred method of contact.

Once again, thank you for joining the Friends of the Library. We look forward to working with you this coming year.
